DESIGN SOLUTIONS® FOR HEARTH AND HOME

INDOOR FIREPLACES

The warmth of a stone fireplace

Rural undertones. Or classic Colonial. Whatever your style, Cultured Stone® has the match. Create an environment that emits warmth. A place that is perfect for get-togethers with family and friends—or simply for enjoying the peacefulness of solitude. These are times spent near the fireplace. A fireplace crafted with Cultured Stone® manufactured stone veneer.

The stone fireplace. It embodies strength and timelessness—elegance, even. From smooth to rugged looks, for tastes ambitious or unassuming, Cultured Stone® brand products offer the variety you're looking for.

The product colors you see in this brochure are as accurate as current photography and printing techniques allow. We suggest you look at product samples before you select colors.

This page, top to bottom: Fossil Reef Coral Stone (CSV-354399) infuses this fireplace with exotic appeal—the look of ancient fossil impressions in a truly contemporary setting. A fireplace featuring Napa Valley Fieldstone (CSV-2059) with Napa Hearthstones (CSH-3095) has the inviting atmosphere of an old-fashioned cottage.

OUTDOOR FIREPLACES

A major enhancement to any exterior

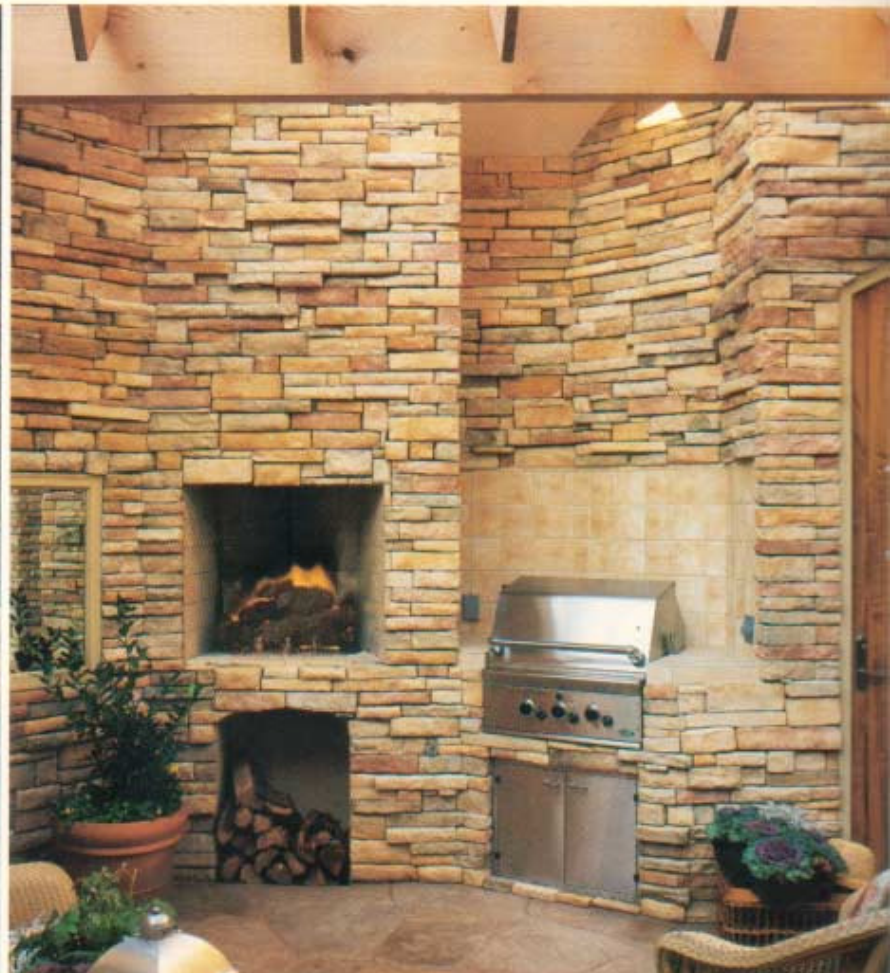

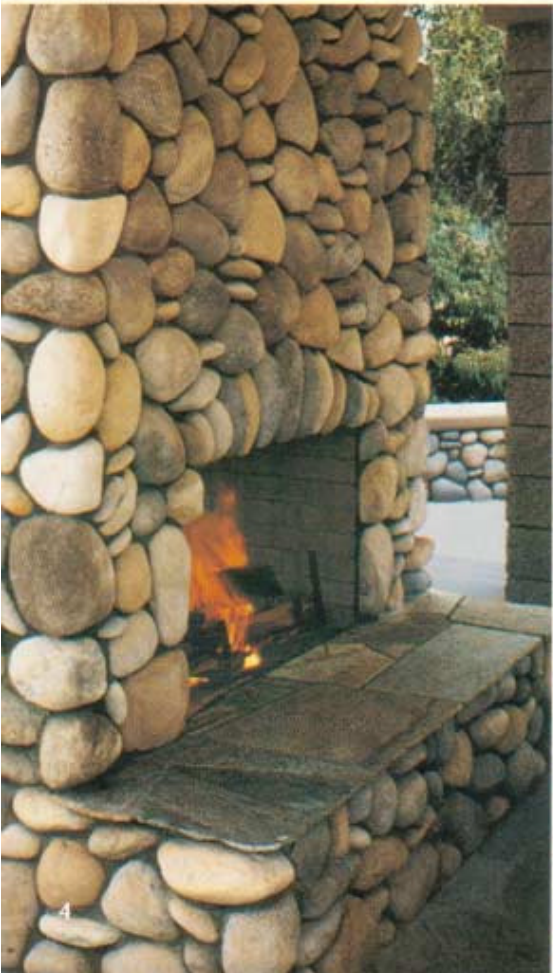

Take the comfort and style of the indoor fireplace, outside. And here the design options are just as limitless. For relaxing or for entertaining guests, the atmosphere that the stone fireplace creates is distinct and aesthetically pleasing. If the elements are a concern, rest assured Cultured Stone® veneer can stand up to the most challenging weather.

STONE CHIMNEYS

Quality built from the ground up

The stone chimney is a centuries-old image of strength. Even its style seems everlasting, its handcrafted beauty apparent on architecture around the world. Applying Cultured Stone® and Cultured Brick® products is the perfect touch for your home's exterior. And whether you're seeking a modern or a classic look—we have the stones and finish for you. Since Cultured Stone® manufactured stone veneer is lightweight, installation can be performed over any structurally sound surface, without additional wall ties or footings. It's durable and color-strong, with a 50-year limited warranty.*

*See actual warranty for details, limitations and exclusions.

The product colors you see in this brochure are as accurate as current photography and printing techniques allow. We suggest you look at product samples before you select colors.
